

Concept Board

I have researched different types of art that use recycled materials.

I really like the example with the rolled paper flowers as I think this could be simple to recreate at home.

The design with the bird silhouettes is really striking and could be fun to recreate.

I think it's clever how a plastic pot has been turned into a minion!

