

Year 1 Maths counting in multiples of 5

There are 5 sweets in a packet, and I bought 6 packets. How many sweets do I have?

There are 5 stickers in a packet, and I bought 8 packets. How many stickers do I have?

There were 5 cookies in a packet, and I bought 10 packets. How many cookies do I have?

There were 5 cupcakes in a packet, and I bought 5 packets. How many cupcakes do I have?

There were 5 lollipops in a packet, and I bought 7 packets. How many lollipops do I have?

There are 5 sweets in a packet, and I bought 4 packets. How many sweets do I have?

There are 5 stickers in a packet, and I bought 2 packets. How many stickers do I have?

There were 5 cookies in a packet, and I bought 3 packets. How many cookies do I have?

There were 5 cupcakes in a packet, and I bought 1 packet. How many cupcakes do I have?

There were 5 lollipops in a packet, and I bought 9 packets. How many lollipops do I have?

Challenge/Extension:

Create your own word problem.

Remember to show your working out and answer your question!