

FOUR ELMS NEWSLETTER

FOUR ELMS PRIMARY SCHOOL

Friday 8th March 2024

Message from Miss Fermor

Here is our brand new Newsletter!

This week the whole school has been involved in celebrating Book Week. We launched the week with a book swap, where children shared their favourite book with children from other classes. On Tuesday, the poet Paul Lyalls, delivered a whole school assembly where he shared lots of his poems and then worked with class 2,3 and 4 teaching them different skills to use in poetry and each child created their own poem.

On Wednesday, Class 2 enjoyed a morning where they were taught a story through drama based on 'The Dragon of Krakow' and in the afternoon Class 1 had fun in a workshop based on the story 'Rumble in the Jungle.' The character parade was a huge success, thanks to everyone for all the wonderful costume efforts! In class the children have been creating poems which were shared at our poetry slam today!

Lost property Box

Please feel free to visit Mrs Holah in reception to have a look through our lost property box. On Thursday 28th March (last day of term) we will have a table outside at collection for Parents/Carers to have a look through. It is really important that all items are named as this helps us return them to the rightful owner. If you need to order name tags for school the My NameTags stickers are great for uniform or bottles. If you purchase from them you can use our school code 31496 and they donate 20 % to the School PTA
